A Letter From The Supervisor

Fellow Irondequoit Resident,

The weather's getting warmer and summer is just around the corner. There are a lot of exciting things happening in Irondequoit this month. If you've been over to Camp Eastman recently, you may have noticed some construction. Our team is hard at work building a brand new splash pad, and it should be ready to go this summer! This is the first of many big improvements to come over at Camp Eastman, and we're excited to share all of our plans with you soon!

This month our Summer Activity Guide - Eye on Irondequoit - will be coming out. We'll have copies at Town Hall, the Community Center, and the Library. The guide will also be available digitally. We have plenty of exciting events happening this month as well. Make sure to come by our Department of Public Work facility on May 18th for an open house and equipment show!

The second installment in our DEI book discussion series will also be taking place this month, in celebration of AAPI Heritage Month. Come join me to discuss Last Night at the Telegraph Club by Malinda Lo on May 29th at the Library. If you have any questions or concerns you can always email me at supervisor@irondequoit.gov.

Sincerely,
Andraé Evans

Department of Public Works

Last month we hosted our first electronics recycling event of the year. We have three more planned on the following dates:

- June 8th
- September 14th
- November 23rd

The September event will coincide with our only paper shredding event of the year.

On May 18th from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM we'll be hosting an open house in celebration of National Public Works Week. Come explore heavy machinery, enjoy live demonstrations, and meet the teams that maintain the community!

Work has begun on our new splash pad at Camp Eastman! We expect the splash pad to be ready for use this summer. Check out the rendering below to see what it will look like!

Irondequoit Public Library

Updates

The Irondequoit Public Library and Rochester Parkinson's Network are partnering to coordinate and promote an ongoing series of presentations concerning Parkinson's Disease. Our first joint program will be held on Saturday, May 11th is titled "(Re) Framing Your Parkinson Disease Journey," and will feature a presentation from a local neurologist, Dr. Michelle Burack, who specialized in treating Parkinson's Disease.

We have partnered with Lifespan to coordinate a series of informational presentations on healthcare related resources and services targeted towards seniors. The four part series is titled Intro to Community Resources for Older Adults & Caregivers. The programs that have been scheduled so far include:

- May 2nd: Community Resources
- May 20th: Medicare 101
- June 6th: Home Care and How to Pay for It

The Irondequoit Public Library and Episcopal Senior Life Communities have partnered to offer a free monthly informational health and wellness programs targeted towards seniors. The first session in this series will be held on April 30th.

The Monroe County Department of Health Project IMPACT team will be on site in our atrium to provide free training on how to use Naloxone, sometimes called Narcan, to reverse an opioid overdose. Participants will also receive free Naloxone nasal spray.

Irondequoit Public library and RochesterWorks have been partnering for a year to provide job seekers with information on and referrals to RochesterWorks' suite of services and trainings. Each Monday a representative from RochesterWorks is on site to interact with library users and provide them with information on resume and cover letter writing workshops, job interview preparation, employment skill development, and trainings.
